

Nomination for Irene Repka CWOCN, Anne Arundle Medical Center

Submitted by Wendy Fiddler

Irene is a great educator not only with her patient population and nursing staff, she also goes out of her way to educate new WOCN's. She genuinely enjoys her profession and therefore, many times places the needs of others before her own; without complaint

Irene ensures that her recommendations for her patient's takes into consideration, cost, patient abilities, ease of application.

Irene not only makes herself available to discharged patients from her facility for follow up questions and concerns, but she also cares deeply for her indigent population and goes out of her way to be sure they have the education and supplies necessary to heal

Although Irene does not actively participate in our meetings she does go out of her way to make her knowledge and skills available to those who need it, staff nurses, new WOCNs and especially her patients.

Because of her love of her profession, her caring and giving personality and desire to help others you would never know when Irene is having a bad day, she always presents a positive professional attitude
